Start your holiday season with a visit to one of the most magnificent Christmas locations in America, the Gaylord Opryland Hotel in Nashville, Tennessee. The 35th annual Country Christmas at the Opryland Hotel is a unique holiday tradition, featuring over two million sparkling lights, a wonderland of music, and fantastic entertainment. Combined with the hotel’s beautiful architectural styles and Southern Hospitality, the Opryland Hotel is an incredible destination.

Tuesday -We depart from Trinity Lutheran Church this morning at 8:00 AM, arriving at the Opryland Hotel around 6:00 PM. This evening you can have dinner (on your own) at one of the many restaurants throughout the hotel and explore your surrounding and perhaps take your Delta River Flat Boat ride.

Wednesday - Today we’ll enjoy a luncheon cruise aboard the General Jackson Showboat. The General Jackson is the world’s largest showboat, and along with a delightful lunch, we’ll enjoy a holiday music revue as we cruise down the Cumberland River. After our cruise, you’ll marvel at the frozen beauty of “ICE”, an exhibit of ice carvings, sculptures and holiday-themed displays. At 7:30 PM tonight we have tickets for one of the most popular holiday shows in Nashville, the “Amy Grant and Vince Gill Christmas Show” at the Ryman Auditorium. This Grammy winning husband-and-wife team has become a Music City holiday trad.

Thursday - This morning we travel to the amazing Fontanel Mansion, a 27,000 square foot log home, formerly owned by Barbara Mandrell. It is the only Nashville celebrity home tour where you can actually go inside and tour. (fontanel.com) After our tour, we head downtown, and since it will be close to lunch time, we will take you to the famous Horseshoe Saloon to grab a bite to eat. There will be time after lunch to check out some of the near-by stores. This evening, back at our hotel, it is time for our Christmas dinner and show. This year’s entertainer is the Grammy-nominated member of the Grand Ole Opry, Trace Adkins. His trademark baritone voice has powered countless hits and sold over 10 million albums. After the show, there will be free time at the hotel.

Friday - After our southern buffet breakfast, we begin our drive back to Ohio. We’ll have made some new friends and gotten a start on some of that Christmas shopping. We will return to Kent around 8:00 PM.
